

Sensory Story of The Week

Jack and the Beanstalk

If you have some soft toys you can use these if not you can print and cut out the characters and scenery from twinkl website and act out the story.

Hello! I hope these have been helpful. I will continue to send new activity ideas to you each week and think of new ways to support you through this time.

If you need anything at all, have any questions or just want to talk please get in touch with school and I will help you in any way that I can.

Take care, Stay safe

Messy Play Activity of Week

Rainbow Rice

Well this is a lot less messy than previous messy activities. All you need is some food colouring, vinegar and of course rice.

This is a great pouring and matching activity too. Please follow the link below to see exactly how to make it.

Art Activity of the Week

Leave Painting

<https://www.pinterest.com/pin/506584658059171545/>

Use an array of colours to paint the leaf and then press it onto some paper. You can use crayons too, put the leaf under the paper and colour over it.

Sensory Number Song of The Week

5 Current Buns

Counting down from 5, focus on 'takeaway' if appropriate.

Bake cakes or use the resources below

Craft Activity of The Week

Egg Box Colour Hunt

This is really fun and you only need an egg box, paint and glue. Fill the each egg carton with a colour and then go on a colour hunt to find an object that fits inside.
