

Being respectful means being kind and thoughtful to others.

I show respect when I listen, use kind words, and think about other people's feelings.

Being respectful means I care about others' rights and personal space.

I also show respect by taking care of the world around me.

I can do this by not wasting things and helping to protect nature.